

OIE Animal Welfare Global Forum

“Animal transport: a shared responsibility”

Paris (France) 11–12 April 2019

PPT file	Theme and Speaker
	Outcomes of the First OIE Global Animal Welfare Forum Matthew Stone, Deputy Director General "International Standards and Science", OIE
	OIE Animal welfare standard on animal transport Leopoldo Stuardo, Chargé de mission – Animal Welfare, Standards Department, OIE
	OIE Training initiatives on animal transport Tomasz Grudnik, OIE Sub Regional Representation for Europe, Brussels, Belgium
	Key note presentation – Animal transport Clive Phillips, OIE Collaborating Centre for Asia Pacific Region, “David Bayvel Consortium”, Australia
	Animal Transport Guidelines Project Nancy De Briyne, FVE
	Animal transport by sea – a front line perspective Renee Willis, Australian Government Accredited Veterinarian (AAV), Australia
	An International Organisational perspective in supporting the implementation of OIE transport standards Andrea Gruber, IATA, Switzerland
	The economics of animal transport Coen van Wagenberg, Senior scientist food quality economics in supply chains, Wageningen Economic Research, The Netherlands
	Animal transport; the experience of an exporting country, including lessons learnt Michael Sheahan, National Animal Welfare, Focal Point from Ireland
	Implementation of OIE animal welfare transport standards - a national perspective Johannes Shoopala, Deputy Chief Veterinary Officer, Namibia
	Animal transport; a private sector perspective Gustavo Monaco, Exporting manager, MINERVA S.A, Brazil
	Role of animal welfare protection organisations in improving animal welfare in transport operations Julia Havenstein, ICFAW – Animals Angels, Germany