

Ms Caroline Smith DeWaal

Caroline Smith DeWaal is the director of the food safety program for the Center for Science in the Public Interest and co-author of Is Our Food Safe? A Consumer's Guide to Protecting Your Health and the Environment (Three Rivers Press, 2002). She represents CSPI in the media, in Congress and in the regulatory arena on a broad range of food safety issues. Ms. DeWaal is the leading consumer analyst on reform of laws and regulations governing food safety. Since 1999, she has maintained and annually published a listing of foodborne illness outbreaks organized by food source that now contains over fifteen years of outbreaks reports. She has presented CSPI's outbreak database at numerous scientific conferences, including the American Public Health Association, International Association for Food Protection and the American Society for Microbiology. She has presented papers on food safety at over 50 scientific and public policy conferences. She has participated in a number of World Health Organization consultations on food safety. She represents the International Association of Consumer Food Organizations at the Codex Committee on Food Hygiene. She has participated in several national advisory committees to USDA and FDA. She chaired the Editorial Board of the Food and Drug Law Journal and is a member of the International Association of Food Protection. DeWaal graduated from the University of Vermont and Antioch School of Law.
