

Mr Ole Klejs Hansen

Senior Adviser at Danish Agricultural Advisory Service and Chairman of the ICAR Subcommittee on Animal Identification. MSc of Agricultural Science (Husbandry) from the Royal Veterinary and Agricultural University, Copenhagen, 1973.

1973-1991: Adviser in local farmers associations

Since 1991: Senior Adviser at the National Centre. Major responsibilities: Animal identification and registration systems.

1992-1993: Member of the COPA/COGECA working group on Identification and Registration.

Since 1994 member of the ICAR Subcommittee on Animal Identification. Chairman since 2006.

Since 1998 member of ISO TC23/SC19/WG3 on Electronic Identification

Conducted worldwide questionnaire on identification and registration systems for cattle sheep and goats in ICAR member organisations 2002 – 2004.

Worked since 1993 closely with Danish Veterinary Services on implementation of identification and registration systems for holdings and animals as required by Danish authorities and EU regulations. Responsible for updating the national animal movement databases with all basic information on holdings and animal movements and for updating information to the National Cattle Database.

International expert in several projects and seminars on identification and registration in Eastern and Central Europe, and also at FAO and ICAR seminars in South East Asia and other parts of the world.